

The Chartered
Society of Forensic
Sciences

British Academy of Forensic Sciences/Chartered Society of Forensic Sciences

Science and the Courts
Human Identification, Migration and Trafficking
Saturday 28 March 2015
Robens Suite, Guy's Hospital, London Bridge, London SE1

09:30	Coffee/Tea
10:15	Welcome and Introduction	Prof Bob Flanagan
	Session 1 – The Law	Chair: HH Judge Jeremy Donne QC
10:30	Use of psychiatric evidence and identity issues in the Immigration Tribunals	Upper Tribunal Judge Mark Ockelton QC (Vice President of the Upper Tribunal, Immigration and Asylum Chamber)
11:00	Juries and their perceptions of identification evidence	Prof Cheryl Thomas (Director, University College London Jury Project and UCL Judicial Institute)
	Session 2 – Science	Prof Bob Flanagan
11:30	Identification of origins using isotope profiling	Mr Stuart Black (University of Reading)
12:00	Biometric applications to confirm identity	Mr Roger Baldwin (Counter Terrorism Forensic Services)
12:30	Lunch
	Session 2 (continued)	Chair: Dr Ann Priston
14:00	Specialist lighting to enhance marks	Mr Nick Marsh (Metropolitan Police)
14:30	DNA evidence	Dr Denise Syndercombe Court (King's College London)
	Session 3 – Medicine	Chair: Prof Michael Kopelman
15:00	The psychiatric expert in the immigration court	Dr Sarah Majid, Consultant Psychiatrist, Tavistock Immigration Legal Service
15.30	The Work of Medical Justice at Immigration Removal Centres'	Dr Sarah Chin, Medical Justice
16.00	Sex trafficking	Dr Michael Korzinski (formerly of the Helen Bamber Foundation)
16:00	Discussion/Close

Cost to include lunch and refreshments - BAFS/CSFS members £60.00, non-members £75.00,
Discounted rate for students/trainees £10.00 (please provide evidence of course followed)
5 accredited RcPath CPD points

www.bafs.org.uk