Lady Edwina Grosvenor
Philanthropist and criminologist

Lady Edwina Grosvenor is a Justice System Reformer with over 20 years of experience and expertise working in the criminal justice sector. She has combined her work as a criminologist, prison philanthropist, adviser and reformer to create systemic change within the Justice System.

Edwina is a founding investor and Ambassador of the Clink Restaurant chain, and she has advised and worked with the Government on the Women's Advisory Board for Female Offenders under The Secretary of State for Justice. This work, alongside Edwina's broader experiences in the justice system, inspired the launch of One Small Thing, the charity of which she is Founder and Chair. One Small Thing aims to redesign the justice system for women and their children and in 2023 they opened Hope Street, a pioneering purpose-built residential space for justice involved women.

Edwina sat on the advisory board to the Centre for Criminology in the Faculty of Law at the University of Oxford from 2016 to 2026 and is now a Visiting Fellow of Oxford University. In January 2024 she joined Global Philanthropic as the first Chair of their Advisory Board. She is also Patron of Paladin, which is the country's only national stalking advocacy service. In 2023 Edwina was presented with the International Corrections and Prisons Association President's Award in Antwerp.

Edwina was a member of the 2025 Women's Justice Board, chaired by Prisons Minister Lord Timpson and she is a Deputy Lieutenant for Hampshire.
